

A Grow Native! Top 10 List

FEATURED CATEGORY:

Outstanding Native Small Flowering Trees for Small Landscapes

Attractive • Durable • Long-lived • Attract Pollinators

	NATIVE PLANT NAME	HEIGHT	UNIQUE QUALITY
1	Red Buckeye (Aesculus pavia)	10'	red flowers attract hummingbirds
2	Serviceberry (Amelanchier arborea)	10-15'	white flowers before trees leaf out
3	Pawpaw (Asimina triloba)	20-30'	attracts zebra swallowtail butterflies
4	Hornbeam (Carpinus caroliniana)	10-15'	horizontal branches
5	Redbud (Cercis canadensis)	15-20'	pink flowers in spring
6	Fringetree (Chionanthus virginicus)	10-15'	fragrant white flowers in spring
7	Flowering Dogwood (Cornus florida)	10'	berries in winter
8	Green Hawthorn (Crataegus viridis)	15-20'	orange berries in autumn
9	Witchazel (Hamamelis virginiana)	10'	yellow fragrant flowers in autumn
10	Wild Plum (Prunus americana)	10-15'	attracts many butterflies