

A Grow Native! Top 10 List

FEATURED CATEGORY:

NATIVE PLANTS FOR WINTER POLLINATORS

Winter Blooming • Attracts Bees, Flies and Butterflies

	NATIVE PLANT NAME	HEIGHT	SUN	UNIQUE QUALITY
1	Aromatic aster (Symphyotrichum oblongifolium)	24–30"	full	Late lavender-purple flowers. Good as hedge.
2	Eastern witchazel (Hamamelis virginiana)	15–20'	shade	Fragrant yellow flowers. Taller than wide.
3	Ozark witchazel (Hamamelis vernalis)	10–15'	shade	Fragrant orange flowers. Wider than tall.
4	Hazelnut (Corylus americana)	6–8'	full/pt.	Male flowers yellow. Female flowers purple-red.
5	Carolina willow (Salix caroliniana)	10–15'	full	Shrubs wide. Good screens.
6	Missouri willow (Salix eriocephala)	5–7'	full/pt.	Rain gardens. Showiest flowers.
7	Prairie willow (Salix humilis)	5–7'	full	Small shrubs. Tolerate dry sites.
8	Spring daisy (Erigeron pulchellus)	1–2"	pt. shade	Spreading groundcover. Flowers like daisies.
9	Pussytoes (Antennaria parlinii)	1–2"	pt. shade	Bee magnet. Dioecious.
10	Prairie pussytoes (Antennaria neglecta)	1–2"	full	Narrow leaves silver.